About Me

- Creative marketing professional with 5+ years of experience in the game industry, covering game advertising, video creative, and creative production across ACG, RPG, MOBA, strategy, shooter, and female-oriented titles in domestic and overseas markets.
- Experienced in developing and delivering marketing creatives — primarily video, with supporting experience in static and social assets — across the full creative lifecycle, from brief intake and concept development to production, stakeholder alignment, feedback management, QA, and final delivery.
- 2+ years of creative production and project coordination experience, managing timelines, resources, external production partners, and cross-functional teams across multiple concurrent projects while maintaining quality and delivery standards.
- Experienced in tracking creative trends, competitors, and high-performing content across global markets, and using CTR, CVR, ROAS, and audience feedback to inform creative iteration and campaign optimization. Hands-on with AI-assisted workflows for ideation, visual exploration, scripting, storyboarding, and rapid prototyping.
